

RAVENS-WAY WILD JOURNEYS

PRIMITIVE LIVING II - INTO THE WILDS.... APPLIED STONE-AGE & SURVIVAL SKILLS

Our 3- day intermediate Stone-age Skills course allows you to take your knowledge to a new level. Set amidst the Chiricahua Mountains, Wilderness Survival Instructor, Naturalist, Ethnobotanist & Wildlife Biologist Vincent Pinto will help you transition into the Wilds of Arizona. Some of the skills we'll cover include: Advanced Rope-Making, Fire-Plow and Bow-Drill Fire-Making, Collecting and Processing Wild Foods (we'll have one or more Wild meals), in-depth Tracks and Signs, Wild Medicinal Plants, Small-Game Hunting Bows/Arrows, 2 types of Animal Traps, One type of Snare, Multi-Person Shelters (with fire), Woven Basket, and small game Hide-Tanning. You must have completed "Primitive living I" or an equivalent class as a prerequisite to this course.

WHEN: JUNE 8 - 10

TUITION: $350

WHERE: RAVEN'S MOUNTAIN, our 50+ acre Nature Sanctuary in the majestic Chiricahua Mountains!

Vincent & Claudia Pinto

www.ravensnatureschool.com

(520)425-6425